

DEMERARA 23 y.o.

Appearance Dark amber, almost ruby.

Nose At first a hint of estery pungency, which evolves into rich organic notes of rhubarb, gentian root, old wooden furniture, ancient wine cellar and full wheat flour.

Palate Soft, but very rich and balsamic. Moderately sweet, with camphor, black tea and herbal liqueur, with a late hint of cinnamon and tannins.

Finish It ultimately gets drier and tannic, with evident wood notes. Chamomile tea, and again cinnamon.

Comment Old, complex and fascinating, almost thick and viscous after many years spent in a cask. Very balanced, full flavored but also elegant.
