

PANAMA 21 y.o.

Appearance Full orange with ruby nuances.

Nose Fresh, fragrant and sweet. Dried figs and dates, Virginia tobacco, Pedro Ximenez wine.

Palate Soft, velvety, never pungent or, on the contrary, too thick. Chocolate, candied oranges and orange liqueur. Again we find dried figs, dates, and mixed tropical fruits. Very drinkable.

Finish Just a touch of pepperiness to contrast the very smooth, moderately sweet and easy character.

Comment An aged rum that manages to stay fresh and not too heavy. The soft and fresh style is quite unusual for such an old rum, which remains stimulating and lively, and devoid of excessive wood influence.
