

DEMERARA 25 y.o. 1990-2015

- Appearance* Chestnut honey.
- Nose* Dark, with a sweet note but mostly spicy, peppery and oaky.
- Palate* Intense since the first sip, with a constantly growing power. The typical funky taste of fermented fruit is evident, with pleasant notes of cola and Earl Grey tea, but the overall style is dry and wood-oriented, with notes of aniseed and cloves.
- Finish* Getting more and more tannic and spicy, with black pepper and medicinal herbs, but still a freshness of orange blossoms too.
- Comment* Powerful but velvety, a rum of long aging and a thousand faces, made even richer by the sherry casks.
