

NICARAGUA 15 y.o.

- Appearance* Evokes sherry, with distinct cherry shades
- Nose* Explosive! Exhalations of fudge, toffee and caramel overlap notes of nail-varnish, wood and liquorice, unexpected aromas of Pandoro, trifle and Nutella seep through
- Palate* A pleasant surprise: redolent of the complexity of a Glen – ever-changing and intriguing, traces of roasted coffee and vanilla envelop the palate, and then, typical of malts aged in old sherry casks vague sensations of malt and caramel return
- Finish* Very long, with distinct impression of coffee and milk chocolate
- Comment* A rare old Rum, typically Latin in character and the perfect partner to a Partagas Lusitania
